

A TREATISE ON BRINGING FALLEN-AWAY CATHOLICS BACK TO THE FAITH

Greetings. My name is Paul Koleske. I am a lay Catholic Evangelist that serves the Catholic Church by conducting inspirational Parish Events like Parish Missions, Evenings or Afternoons of Reflection or Concerts and Retreats all across America. My main objective is to help Catholics feel an increased Presence of the Holy Spirit, in fact, the Triune God in their everyday lives.

In my travels, I have listened to hundreds of faithful Catholics lamenting the absence of their loved ones at Mass and in the practice of their Catholic Faith.

During Lent of 2016, I decided I couldn't take the pain I shared with them anymore, so I decided to do something about it. By the end of Lent 2016, I penned a 10 step outline of actions concerned Catholics could take to begin taking a different direction in bringing their loved ones back to the Mass/Faith!

My 10 step plan will help you bolster your prayers and bring those special souls in your life back to The Church!

Here's the 10 steps to follow:

HOW TO BRING FALLEN AWAY CATHOLICS BACK TO MASS USING THE 3 ARTICLES FROM THE IGNITING THE LIGHT OF CHRIST WITHIN YOU PARISH MISSION by Paul Koleske

STEP 1: Google these 3 articles (if you don't google find someone who does):

- Eucharistic Miracle Lanciano, Italy
<http://www.michaeljournal.org/articles/roman-catholic-church/item/the-eucharistic-miracle-of-lanciano-italy>
- Eucharistic Miracle Buenos Aires, Argentina
http://www.loamagazine.org/nr/the\_main\_topic/eucharistic\_miracle\_in\_buenos.html
- Catalina Rivas the Mass
<http://www.michaeljournal.org/articles/roman-catholic-church/item/the-holy-mass>

STEP 2: Print out each story and read it thoroughly highlighting the points that have significance to you.

STEP 3: Make a list of all the loved ones in your life who have left the church.

STEP 4: Pick 1 of the 3 articles to give or send to the people on your list.

STEP 5: Decide the best way to get the article to each person on your list:

- Hand it to them in person
- Email it to them
- Text them the link to the article so they can pull it up on their computer or cell phone
- Mail it to them with a short note
- Consider highlighting the key points for them so they at least read that

STEP 6: Write a short letter or memo telling the person:

- You heard a speaker and were touched by this information that was shared
- You wanted to share this article in hopes they'd return to Mass.
- You'd like their feedback after they have read it...

STEP 7: Pray the O Jesus I Surrender Myself to You Novena for yourself and for them.

STEP 8: Send another article to them on their birthday or a significant day for them – 2 more times!

STEP 9: Practice allowing yourself to let go of the outcome – RELAX and TRUST GOD to handle the rest.

STEP 10: After you have done all this CONGRATULATIONS! You have taken new action to Evangelize!!!

Some final thoughts:

- Say something like; “with this miracle being a fact, doesn’t it make sense to consider returning for Christ’s sake”?
- If you get a response where any argument or point is made against The Church simply respond, “I know how you feel. I understand. However, when I thought about that same thing I decided it was a mistake to leave Jesus and The Church for “Judas”... think about it”!
- Whenever you get anxious about their return, gently pray to your Guardian Angel asking it to go speak to their Guardian Angel about it and DO NOT JUDGE BY APPEARANCES – BELIEVE!
- This simple outline should give you the steps you can take to encourage those who have left to come back. Know that your actions greatly enhance your prayers for their return!
- God loves them even more that you do, He created them. He wants them to return and nothing passes through his “sifter” unless He allows it. Thus, take the action and let it be – in His time!

In my travels I hear people say; “why don’t the priests talk about the True Presence of Jesus from the pulpit”? My question back to them is; “what are you doing to spread that news with the people in your life”?

The reason I say this to them is that even if the priests would regularly talk of Christ’s True Presence at each Mass, the people that need to hear, and heed this message, are not at Mass to hear it!

The way I see it, we need more “boots on the ground” so to speak. And, those boots must be believers like you and me.

In my Parish Mission Series teaching I state that God has called us to be prophets to the nations; Jeremiah 1:5 "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you; I have appointed you a prophet to the nations."

Then, when I ask those congregated at the session; "How many of you think of yourselves as prophets", only a few hands, if that, go up. Is it any wonder why the Catholic Church is experiencing such low attendance at the Perfect Prayer – the Mass?

We have been conditioned to think there are 2 things you don't talk about, politics and religion. Why? Because it creates such dissension between people. Isn't that what Christ said he'd come to do? Matthew 10:35 "For I have come to turn a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."

If you don't bring up the topic of Mass/The Faith to your loved ones, then, who will? You committed to be there for those special souls in your life long ago – if you are a God-parent, confirmation sponsor, or even stood up at someone's wedding in the Catholic Church.

This link gives 8 key reasons people should go to Mass:

<http://www.catholiceducation.org/en/marriage-and-family/parenting/8-reasons-to-go-to-mass.html>

Provided this article...

8 Reasons to Go to Mass

- THOMAS LICKONA

"Mass is boring." "I don't get anything out of Mass — why should I go?" "Why can't I just pray alone?" These are common feelings, especially among young people but among many adults as well. How should we respond.

"Do this in memory of me." - Jesus (Luke: 22:19)

"If you really thought about who you are, who God is, and how much thanks you owe Him, you would want to go to Mass. The Mass would become the source and center of your spiritual life."
- James Stenson

These are common feelings, especially among young people but among many adults as well. The great Bishop Fulton J. Sheen, when conducting a retreat for teenagers, once gave a talk on the meaning of the Mass. He said, "If you don't get anything out of Mass, it's because you don't bring the right expectations to it." The Mass is not entertainment, he said. It is worship of the God who made us and saves us. It is an opportunity to praise God and thank Him for all that He has done for us.

If we have a correct understanding of Mass, Bishop Sheen said, it will become more meaningful for us. We will want to go to Mass. We will understand why the Mass is God's precious gift to us, and we wouldn't think of refusing that gift. Here are eight reasons to go to Mass:

1. The Command of God.

The Third of the Ten Commandments given to Moses by God is, "Remember to keep holy the Sabbath day" (Exodus 20:8).

2. The Command of Christ.

Why should we keep the Sabbath holy by going to Mass? The Mass was instituted at the Last Supper by Jesus before his Crucifixion. The Last Supper was the first Mass.

When the hour came, he [Jesus] took his place at the table with the apostles . . . Then he took the bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body, which will be given for you. Do this in memory of me" (Luke 22:14,19).

When we celebrate the Mass, we repeat the Last Supper, as Jesus commanded us to do. In doing this, we remember and re-present his great act of love for us on the Cross — taking our sins upon himself so that we, if we follow his commandments, can live with him forever in heaven.

3. The Command of the Church.

The Church teaches that we must fulfill the command of Jesus ("Do this in memory of me") by attending Sunday Mass (or the Vigil Mass the night before). The Catechism of the Catholic Church (1994, pp. 493-94) explains that Mass attendance on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation is the first of the six Commandments of the Church. These Commandments of the Church also require receiving Communion at least once a year during the Easter season, confessing any mortal sin as a preparation for Communion, and observing the prescribed days of fasting and abstinence. These Commandments spell out the minimal responsibilities of a Catholic. To fail to fulfill them through our own fault, the Church teaches, is a serious sin.

4. The Church speaks with the authority of Jesus.

Why should we obey these teachings of the Church? Where does the Church get its authority? From Jesus. In Matthew 16:18-19, Jesus made Peter the head of his Church — the first Pope. He gave Peter and the Church "the keys to the kingdom of heaven":

I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

The Church's authority in faith and morals is absolute because Christ's authority is absolute.

5. What we do at Mass.

The Mass is first of all a sacrifice — the perfect sacrifice, created by Jesus. Through the priest we offer Jesus, Body and Blood, to the Father, just as Jesus offered Himself to the Father on the Cross. In an unbloody way, we repeat — make present — Christ's death and Resurrection. Through this memorial of Jesus, we offer God our praise, sorrow for our sins, and deepest thanks.

The Mass is also a meal. At the Consecration, the bread and wine, through the power of the Holy Spirit, become the Body and Blood of Christ. Not a mere symbol, but Jesus's real flesh and real blood, under the appearance of bread and wine. When we receive Holy Communion, we receive Jesus Himself. He is real food for our soul. He said this very plainly: I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. My flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him. (John 6:55-56).

What are the benefits of Holy Communion? It strengthens our union with Jesus; He lives within us in a special way. It cleanses us from venial sins. (Mortal sins require forgiveness in Confession.) It gives us grace to avoid sin in the future. It increases our love of God and neighbor.

6. Why do we have to worship with other people?

God made us social beings. He wants us to come together in community to worship Him. Jesus said, "Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I" (Matthew 18:20).

7. What are the consequences for others if we stop going to Mass?

James Stenson points out:

Our ancestors risked persecution, even death, to be able to take part in Mass. When you have children someday, they will need the graces and strength that come from the Mass. If you fail to pass it on because of your own indifference, you will do the gravest injustice to them and to God. You have the power to snuff out, in one generation, the faith that has sustained your family for generations. This is an enormous responsibility. You will have to answer to God for it.

8. The benefits of Mass.

If we give God a chance, He will help us experience the tremendous benefits of the Mass and the Eucharist. James Stenson writes:

Be patient. Bring an attitude of prayer and thanksgiving to Mass, and you will reap great spiritual riches: consolation, confidence, peace, deep happiness, and spiritual strength for the challenges of life.

Mother Teresa once wrote: "Jesus is my God/ Jesus is my Spouse/ Jesus is my Life/ Jesus is my Everything. Because of this, I am never afraid." Mother Teresa went to Mass every day. If we love the Mass as she did, we, too, will live in Jesus and he in us, and will we never be afraid.

WORKSHOP

- The #1 reason fallen away Catholics come back to Mass!
- Why are you here?
- What do you hope to gain from this forum?
- Your evangelization goals.
- Your attitude!
- Getting a handle on your fear to evangelize.
- Organize your approach!
- Your tickler system.
- Overcoming objections.
- Final thoughts & comments...